THE WEEKLY EXPOSITOR.

It is herewith introduced to you. It will be a live local journal. It will deal alike with all. It will be strictly independent as regards politics.

It will transact its subscription business on the cash-in-advance plan.

It will strive to advance the interests of Brockway Centre and vicinity.

It will live if you support it properly.

If the above comports with your ideas regarding the matter, drop a dollar into its till and ensure its weekly visits.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Speaks

N. C. Gray has purchased the hotel of McDoran.

Mrs. Christian Zavi died Sunday morning aged 78 years. The funeral was held Monday afternoon and was largely attended.

Grant Clegg.

The school at this place is progressing finely under the management of Dewitt Phoenix of Port Huron.

A temperance lecture was delivered at the M. P. Church, by Mrs. I. M. Boyce of Grand Rapids and was appreciated very much by the audience.

Samuel Fair is doing good business in the manufacture of implements this spring. Robert Harris is also doing a thriving business with his foundry and is turning out great many saws, which are giving good satisfaction.

Veblen's residence at Brockway Centre.

Our school teachers are doing well. Mrs. Zavi's funeral was held Monday afternoon.

Flong, of Inlay Co., moved today into the store formerly occupied by T. J. Sullivan. We wish him a good trade.

Makelim is doing a rug business in his store.

Work has been commenced on the foundation of the new mill. P. M. Beckett, of this place and Peter Beckett, of North Branch are the proprietors.

F. A. Kyes who has telegraphed the last winter for Mr. Mann is visiting friends in Canada.

M. Callaghan and J. L. C. started this morning for Colorado.

John McLeod starts Texas in a few days.

Spring Hill.

The farmers are thrashing. The heavy rains have a good effect on the corn and potatoes.

The quarterly meeting of the Methodist Protestant society will be held Sunday May 18, 1882, at 10:30 a. m. A number of ministers are expected to attend. All are urged to attend.

A. Hill has filled his store up with spring goods. Give him a call.

D. Kring our blacksmith is at work again.

Our Cheese factory is not going to run this summer. I am sorry for it like cheese.

We noticed H. Bartlett of Brockway Centre in town Saturday. Come again today.

A. Allwood and family, of Speaker, visited at F. A. Hill's last week.

The boys are all going to attend the slow next Monday.

Mr. Annis, our late school teacher, who gave up his school on account of his health, is failing fast with consumption.

Mrs. F. A. Hill is getting smart again after a short illness.

We welcome the new paper from Brockway Centre, and wish the editor success.

Capac Happenings.

J. H. Basfill started for Hildale, Tuesday morning in quest of new machinery for his mill. We understand that Mr. Basfill is making many other much needed improvements in his business.

Rev. Wm. Eastlake and wife of Sanilac, are visiting at Rev. H. D. Miller's, M. P. pastor, F. W. Scott, of Port Huron, spent Sunday here.

Local attraction.

Mrs. J. Jones has gone to Detroit to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.
